

NEPAL-PHILIPPINES Chamber of Commerce and Industry

*Press Release
July 5, 2017*

Nine Newly-elected Officers and Executive Members of Nepal-Philippines Chamber of Commerce and Industry were sworn in today.

The swearing in ceremony was administered by Hon. Suraj Vaidya, Consul General of the Republic of the Philippines in Nepal at Consulate General Office in Dhumbarahi, Kathmandu.

All together, the new group read aloud the NPCCI oath. Newly-elected President, Blessie Gadon Dhakal, highlighted the diversity assets of 2 countries (Nepal and Philippines) during her speech presentation and her intentions to introduce and showcase the products and services that each country is popular for.

Pilgrimage Tourism, Carpet, Artifacts, Wood carving, beautiful sceneries and gorkha services are some of the popular products and services from Nepal, while, marine goods and services, education, technical training and soft and personality development skills and tourism are from the Philippines.

Dhakal said that she and her group got a big job to do for these two years they had as they look forward to future business opportunities for both countries.

During the ceremony Dhakal also welcomed new members of the Chambers.